The first English-language reference guide on the subject of French military insignia from the 1930s through the 2000s outlines methods of identifying and dating French insignia badges with precise discussion of manufacturer traits, insignia symbolism and history of the practice among military units. This is a go-to manual for the casual or serious collector and great reference for all!

About the AuthorScott Guye, a bilingual collector of French military insignia for over 10 years, started collecting military antiques at the age of 12. Regularly interacting with the French collector community and researching direct sources, he operates the website French-Insignia.com.
