House of Collectibles [Published date: 1988]. Soft cover, 548 pp. With black and white illustrations throughout and 8 pages of color illustrations. [From rear cover] THE FIRST GUIDE TO OFFER A COMPREHENSIVE LOOK AT THE AMERICAN DECORATIVE ARTS THAT SIGNALLED THE END OF THE VICTORIAN ERA ANDTHE BEGINNING OF THE MODERNIST MOVEMENT.A s the nineteenth century drew to a close, the American public began to voice their dissatisfaction with the shoddy workmanship and gaudy excesses of Victorian furnishing manufacturers. The new century saw the emergence of a new style of American decorative arts simple, clean, functional, yet artistic, a style that has returned today with all the vigor, enthusiasm, and support that it received in 1905. This identification and Price guide will provide you with the photographs, illustrations, and information you need to appreciate and collect the finest examples of the American Arts and Craft's Movement.
